

Who & Where is the Vet

The Vet is the person marching in the parade!

The Vet is the neighbor displaying their pride by flying the flag!

The Vet is the Coach, Teacher, Policeman, or Fireman!

The Vet is the Butcher, the Baker, and maybe the Homemaker!

But the Vet is also the man on the side of the road with a worn coat & a card board sign on which he wrote, can you spare a dime!

The Vet is sitting at their Post remembering lost friends and giving them a Toast!

The Vet is standing guard & giving final salutes for a fellow Vet whose time is gone!

The Vet is lying in a field with identical markers in perfect formation!

The Vet is many places, if you see one, or stand above one in a National Cemetery, Thank the Vet for your Children's and their Children's opportunity to live in this free land!
